

ENGINEERS | ARCHITECTS | SCIENTISTS

"In order to have a better world, we must first have a world of better men."
- Herb Scobie minn32

May 27, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Drew Hopson Named Triangle Fraternity's Director of Alumni Engagement

PLAINFIELD, IN. – Triangle Fraternity is pleased to announce the addition of James “Drew” Hopson to its staff as the new Director of Alumni Engagement. The position will develop and deliver programs and services supporting over 16,000 living alumni, as well as education and training programs to encourage and assist chapter and regional alumni groups.

Drew joins the staff after two years at University of West Georgia where he worked in the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life while earning his Masters of Education in Counseling. Hopson is a member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, but has volunteered and interned with several men’s college fraternities including Phi Kappa Tau and Pi Lambda Phi, as well as several NIC leadership programs and regional Interfraternity meetings.

Executive Director Tom Pennington offered, “Drew has a great background in fraternity life, has worked with some excellent people in the field and comes highly recommended. We’re excited to have him join the team and are looking forward to the good work we know he will do.”

Mr. Hopson is a graduate of DePaul University in Chicago, where he was a recipient of numerous scholarships and awards for leadership, academic performance and service, but is an Indiana native and happy to return to the State.

For additional information, contact the Triangle Headquarters at 317-837-9640.

---

Triangle is the premier college fraternity for men pursuing degrees in Engineering, Architecture and Sciences, founded at the University of Illinois in 1907. Currently represented at over 40 campuses and 1,400 undergraduates, its national headquarters is located in the historic former Carnegie Library building in Plainfield, Indiana.