

MIND MAN WORLD

The Campaign for Triangle
Developing the Next Generation of Leaders

June 20, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Triangle Education Foundation Surpasses $6.5 Million Campaign Goal

Plainfield, Ind. — The Triangle Education Foundation’s Campaign for Triangle has surpassed its $6.5 million goal. The success of the Campaign grows the Foundation’s endowment expanding support of leadership, scholastic achievement and student aid programs. The Campaign for Triangle will conclude July 22, 2017, at Triangle’s National Convention, and Campaign gifts will continue to be counted until the Campaign’s end.

“The generosity of alumni and friends of Triangle is truly humbling and is a credit to the values the Fraternity has instilled. I am especially excited about the broad base of support for the Campaign for Triangle with gifts from members spanning nine decades. The team effort by volunteers and Triangle staff made this resounding success possible”, said Foundation President Scott Bova, CFRE.

Since the Campaign began, annual program funding has increased from $150,000 to more than $300,000, as Campaign commitments are fulfilled program funding will continue to grow. Campaign gifts have enabled the launch of several new programs including the Larry & Judy Garatoni Building Better Men initiative, the Melissa & John Gargani Academic University, significant expansion of Triangle’s Chapter Endowment Fund program, a new partnership with First Robotics and the funding of a new Director of Leadership Programs position for Triangle.

HISTORY MAKING

The Campaign for Triangle built on the success of the 2001 – 2009 Formula for Success Campaign that raised $4,500,000. Due to the overwhelming response of alumni and friends of Triangle, the initial Campaign for Triangle goal of $5 million was increased to $6,500,000. In total, more than 400 donors have contributed to the Campaign.

Triangle Education Foundation Chairman, Al Ver ar65 said, “The Campaign for Triangle has been an affirmation of our members’ commitment to the future success of our Fraternity. I am gratified by the generosity shown by all our donors, their gifts make the Triangle Education Foundation’s work possible. The Triangle Education Foundation is committed to supporting the educational needs of Triangle, its chapters, and our undergraduate brothers.”

Our Mission

Triangle Education Foundation values the opportunity that Triangle provides to its members allowing them to excel in academics, leadership, and human interaction. Triangle Education Foundation’s mission is to provide leadership and resources that help achieve the educational and personal development goals and objectives of Triangle and its members.

###

Contact: Scott Bova, CFRE, President

Email: sbova@triangle.org

Phone: 317.705.9803